Show Presidents – John & Katherine Gwynne

Katherine:

Born in the Vale of Glamorgan, I moved to Salem at 4 years of age and attended school in Llandeilo. I met John at The Young Farmers Club and we got married at Manordeilo Church in 1965. We have been farming at Cloglas for the last 59 years which has been so rewarding in spite of it's many ups and downs. I also had many a happy day working for Nigel and Rita Williams at the chemist in Llandeilo.

John:

I have family connections with Llansadwrn, my Mother was brought up at Cefnparc. My Grandfather was the treasurer of the village community group raising funds for the war effort. The money raised was loaned to the government and when it was paid back he organised it to be used for the play area in Llansadwrn.

I was born at Tirmynydd, Salem and moved to Coed Mawr in 1943. I was a pupil at Cwmifor School, then Llandovery College, where rugby was much more of an attraction than my studies. As well as the farm, the Hwyrnos at Plas Glansevin provided many happy memories. When the herd was dispersed in 2001, along came Agri Lloyd.

My Mother thought fondly of Llansadwrn and I am honoured to support the Show.

All proceeds from the Show Raffle will be donated to the Presidents' chosen charity at Glangwili Hospital

Toffee and Almond Shortbread

Ingredients

For the Base

- A square or round tin.
- 175 g / 6 oz plain flour.
- Pinch of salt.
- 3 table spoons of caster sugar.
- 125 g / 4.5 oz unsalted chilled, diced butter.
- 1 large egg yolk.

For the Topping.

- 100 g / 4 oz unsalted butter.
- 200 g / 7 oz flaked almonds.
- 3 tablespoons caster sugar.
- 2 tablespoons honey.
- 3 tablespoons single or whipping cream.
- Icing sugar (optional to decorate).

Method

Base

Preheat the oven to 190c/375f/gas 5.

1. Sift flour, salt & sugar into mixing bowl. Add the butter & rub in with your fingertips until the mixture resembles fine crumbs. Add the egg yolk & gently knead the mixture to make a dough.
2. Crumble the dough into the tin & spread evenly, then flour your fingers and gently press mixture onto the base of the tin & smooth to an even layer. Prick with a fork and chill for 15 mins.
3. Bake the shortbread base for 10 -12 minutes until light golden brown. Remove from oven.

Topping

1. Melt butter in a pan, add the almonds, sugar & honey & cook over a low heat stirring gently until bubbling & straw coloured. Stir in the cream. Bring back to simmer & cook for just 1 min. Pour the mixture over the base & spread evenly (Take care as it will be very hot).
2. Return to the oven, bake for 10 -12 mins until the topping has turned a glossy golden brown.
3. Transfer the tin to a wire rack & leave until completely cold & set (preferably overnight) before cutting into squares or diamonds or any other shape. Decorate with icing sugar or something of your choice or leave plain.
4. Display 4 slices.
